FOREWORD

As the spotlight focuses on the various activities of HHS, let us review the year, just passed, in the 1963 Hixonian.

We studied, had fun, and experienced sad moments of trial and error. There were games and dances; voices were hoarse from Pep Club rooting and singing. There were brief moments of glory for some of us in sports and musical and dramatic productions.

All shared the hopeless reality of examinations and deadlines, the semester grades, and the noontime cafeteria rush. These impressions are only a few that were packed into this full year. Tomorrow, when it is not so easy to think back on 1963, we will treasure the memories this book has stored for us.

Credit for the production of this book goes to the loyal Hixonian Staff. The Staff, however, has furnished only the outlines of the story that we find when we turn these pages filled with warm smiles of friendship and many happy recollections. The rest is up to the individual. Underclassmen who return to HHS in the fall will continue to maintain the high standards of the school and strive for improvement. Graduates will go their separate ways, using the knowledge they have gained here to reach their successes.

America is ever striving for an enlightened citizenry. We realize that this enlightenment can come only through the education of our people. As we complete our high school education and go out into the world, it is our duty to keep the light of American freedom burning.

DONNA JEAN BEALS

She walks in beauty, like the night
Of cloudless climes and starry skies;
And all that's best of dark and bright
Meet in her aspect and her eyes;
Thus mellowed to that tender light
Which heaven to gaudy day denies.

Mr. Normand Jones, superintendent of the Hicksville Schools, is never too busy to confer with Barry Haver and the other students of H.H.S. concerning their future vocations and any other immediate problems.

Through his diligent work in attempting to broaden the educational opportunities here in Hicksville, Mr. Jones has made available many important facts concerning our school, such as present classroom facilities and financial needs. He wants the students of Hicksville to have a good high school education in preparation for the competitive educated world of today.

Members of the Hicksville School Board have devoted many hours of their valuable time to promote better educational facilities for the youth of Hicksville.

Serving with little compensation, this group holds numerous meetings where, under the direction of President Claron Laub, they make important decisions affecting our school.

The new addition to the elementary building for the Junior High is just one of the results of their hard work and interest.

Present Our Administration

Mr. Harold Ringer and Mr. Raymond Hook, principals of the Hicksville Schools, spend much time observing classes and assisting students and faculty. They help us to graduate with a well-balanced education by encouraging excellence in scholarship and participation in outside activities.

We are grateful to have principals so interested in the youth of Hicksville.

Green; William Cle-
John Hofner.

With a smile for everyone, Mrs. Lura Thiel and Mrs. Connie Hostetler, our two efficient secretaries, keep the records and office proceedings of the Hicksville Schools running smoothly.

Social Studies Connect the Guidance given by Mr. Gaylord Gerig and the knowledge acquired through the courses in social studies prepare the students of H.H.S. for further education and prosperous futures in their chosen fields.

Mr. Harold Ringer points out to Jerry Scott and Gene Cottrell the location of one of the many countries studied in the senior geography class.

Under the capable direction of our new guidance counselor, Mr. Gaylord Gerig, Kathleen Meyer and the many other students of H.H.S. receive valuable information that is of great importance to them as they prepare for their vocations and future careers.

Judy Baker, Karen Straley, and Phil Wonderly examine the map of the United States as a part of their course in American History.

Present to the Past

Fred Burley, Margaret Brush, Tim Betts, and Pat Burlingame listen intently as Mr. Leonard Meyers, senior government teacher, relates another one of his "personal experiences" with Uncle Sam.

Bill Wordon, Tom Sholl, Tom Stuckman, and John Hoovler locate Italy on the map as they study world history.

Mrs. Jane Stolte tells Candy Byers, Margaret Brush, and Mary Şindel how to interpret an Elizabethian sonnet.

The English Language is the foundation of our American educational system. What would it be like if we were not able to converse intelligently among ourselves? All of our sciences and social studies depend upon the efficient use of English.

It is our love of literature and poetry that lifts us from our everyday world and gives us the key to understanding.

English . . . the

Jim Sweeney, Diane Coon and Joyce Hart are looking for an interesting book in the new "Book Store" for their freshman English Class.

Bob Bowdish delivers a speech to a captivated audience of Barry Haver and Rickie Pierman.

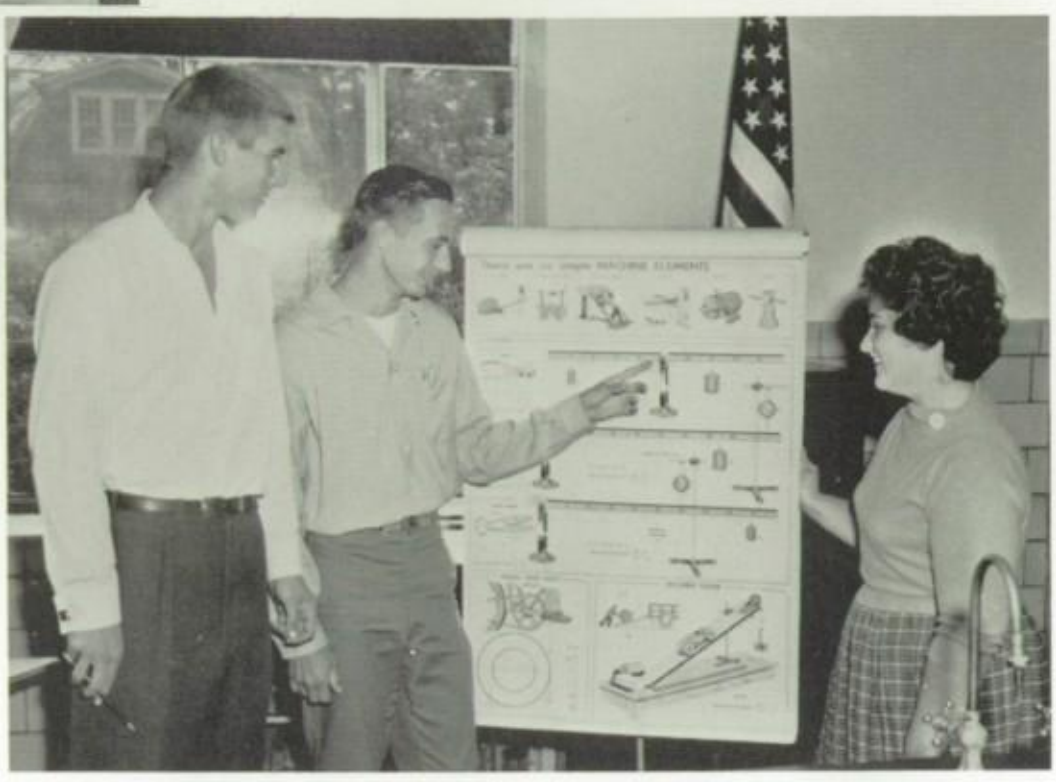
The Latin teacher of H.H.S., Mrs. Margaret McAdams, has Steve Beck, Jim Handy, Sandra Briedenbaugh, Virginia Smathers, and Julie Folk showing examples of the many facets of the Roman Empire.

Key to Learning

Mr. Clyde Heinonen explains to Herbert Scranton, Ellen Walter and John Ewing a technical point in poetry in the Sophomore English class.

In Junior English Class Susan Laub, Larry McCurdy and Jane Beck are looking over their corrected English themes.

To know more about the Chordata Clan, just ask Paul Carwile, Dorothy Roe, or Carl Clark.

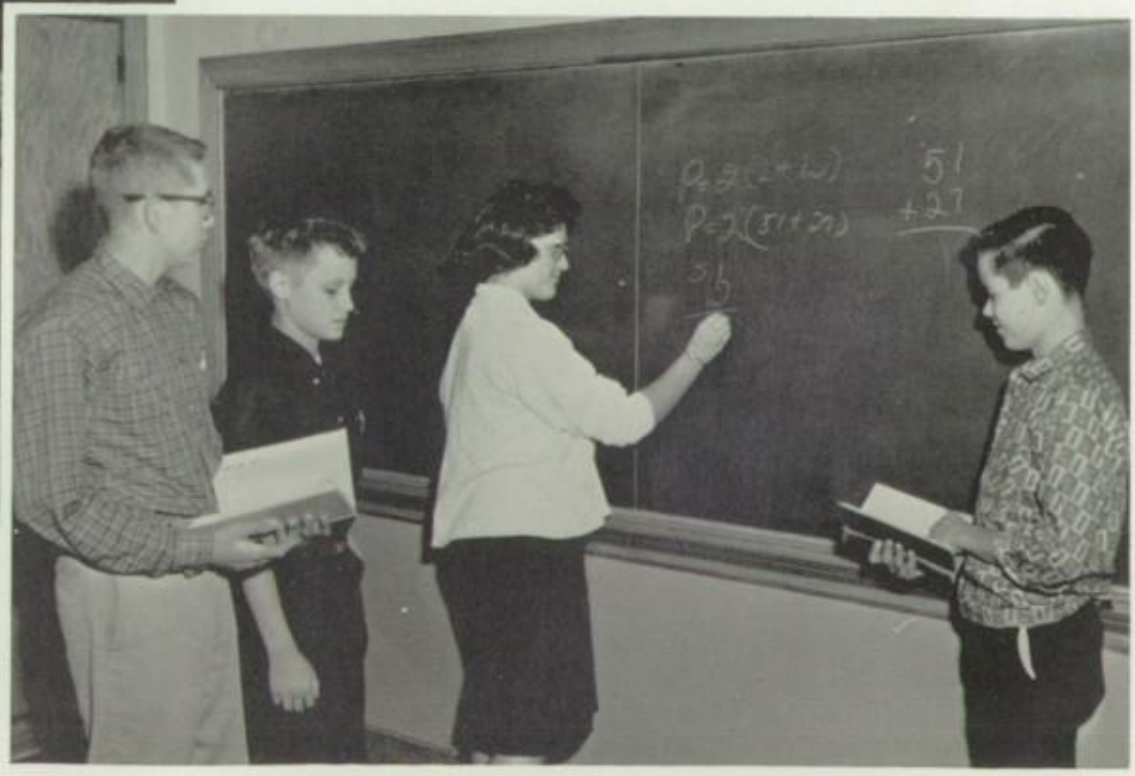


Our physics whiz, Neal Blalock, is demonstrating to Brian Rohrs and Candy Overmyer the fundamentals of a simple lever.

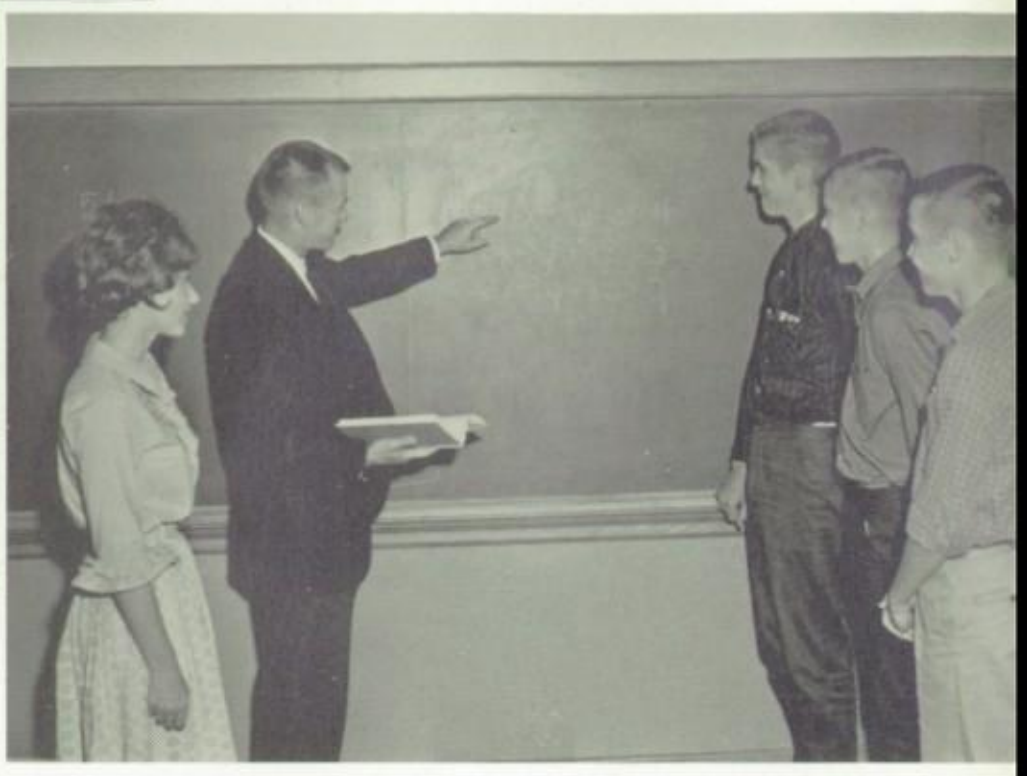
Today's Stress Is Upon

Geometry is easy if you have a compass, right, Kathy Wonderly?

Algebraic equations don't bother the Algebra I students, Dave Cole, Bob Beverly, Joyce Hart, and Robbie Miller.

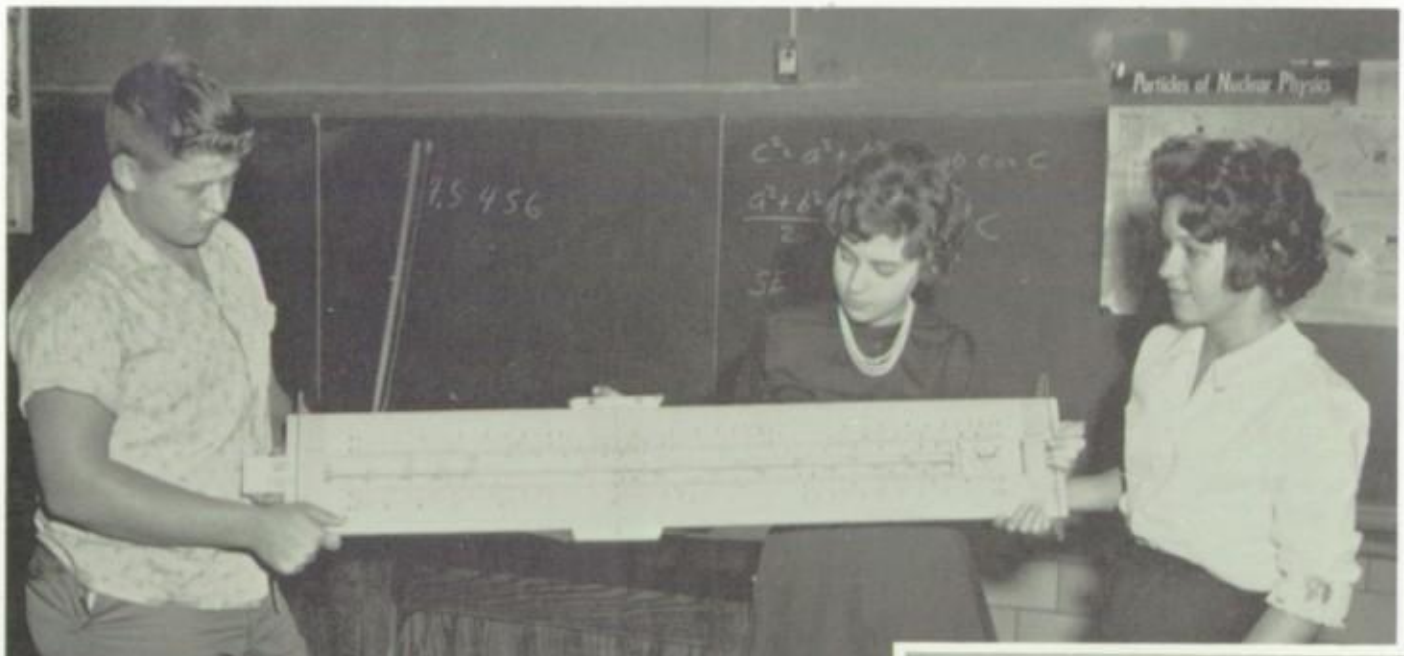


General Science student, Barry Finzer, is indicating a part of an automobile engine to Jim Handy, Cheryl Plum, and Mr. Derrill Murphy.

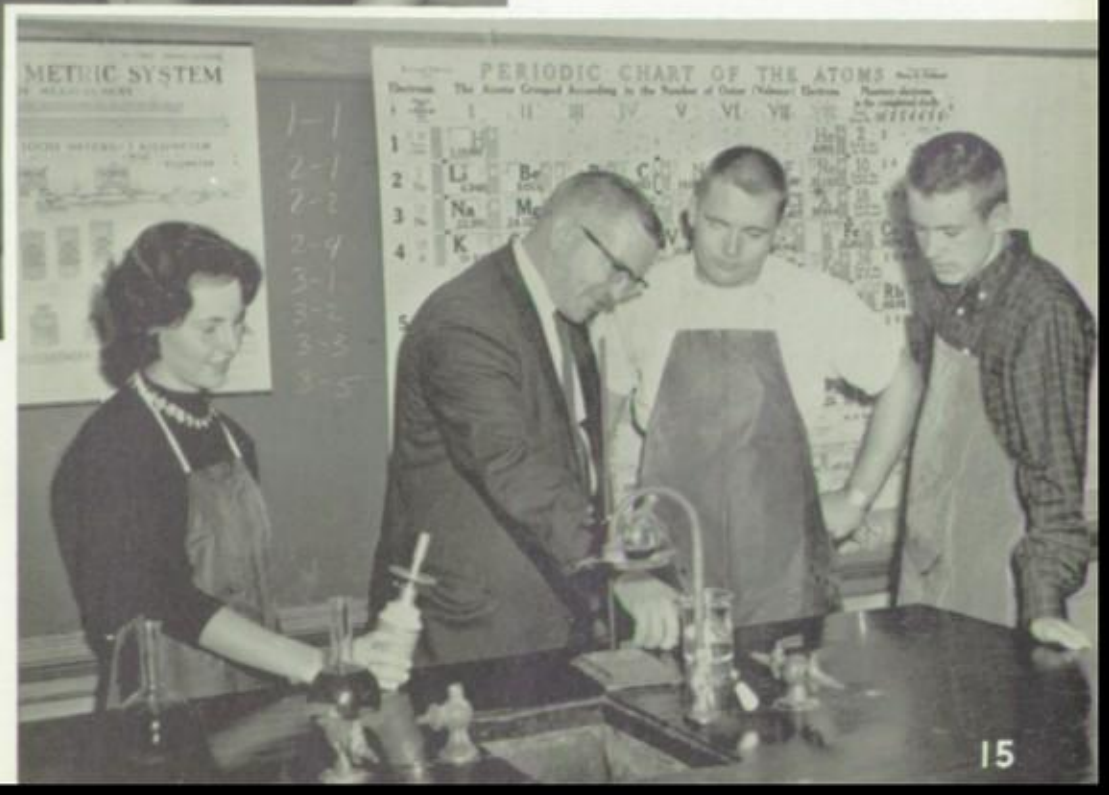


How to solve an equation with three unknowns has been explained to Elaine Otis, Jerry Poper, Ronnie Laux, and Tom Cromwell by Mr. John Fast.

Math and Science



The need for a slide rule in trigonometry is great; but as Mike Kenner, Ruth Sweeney, and Mary Sindel can see, this one is a "bit large."



If you notice a strange odor in the halls, you'll know where to look—in the chemistry lab. Here Susan Killian holds the burner while Mr. Phil Wahl pulls the "slight of hand" while John Hofner and Keith Jones watch skeptically.

Students Train for

Jackie Bice and Jane Cook prepare another tasty meal under the capable supervision of Mrs. Pat Miller, home economics teacher.

Vickie James and Lee Hinsch learn the art of flower arranging through their course in home economics.

Mr. Bernard Ticich explains the intricate diagram of a current project to onlooking industrial arts students, Monty Nichols, Millard Ensign, Larry Husted, and Joe Stotler.

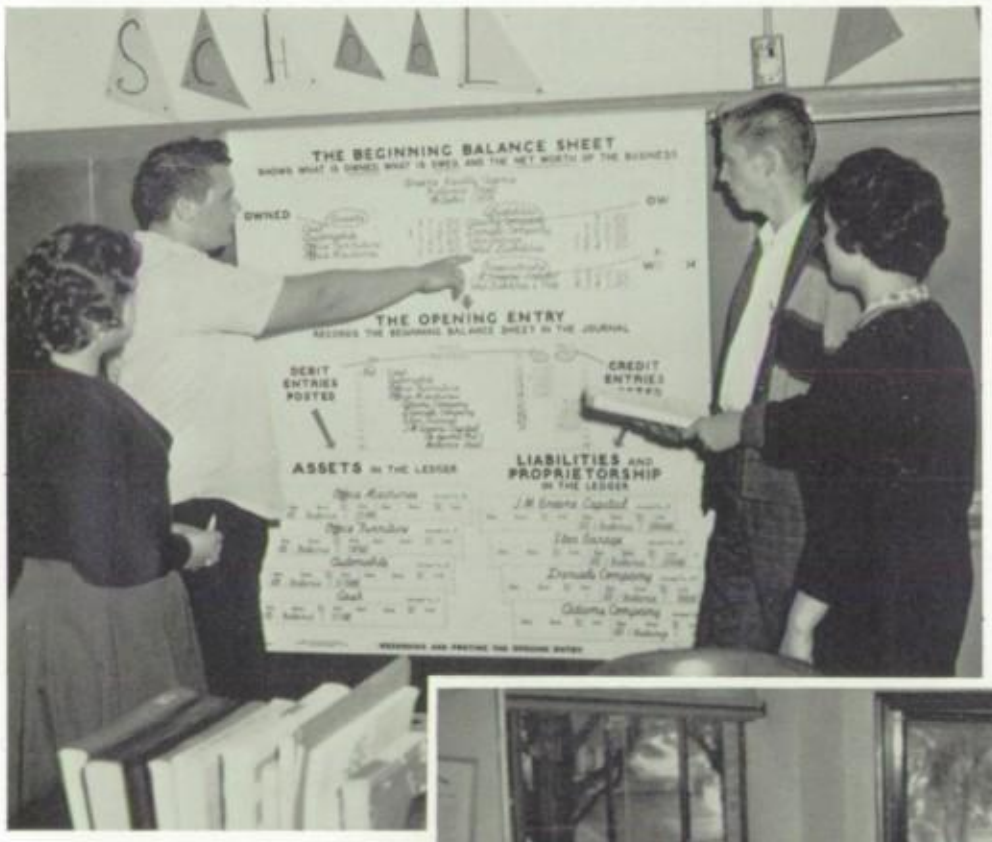
Cliff Gorrell, Mike Brown, Howard Blasing, and Norm Grover appease their desire to create as they make various useful articles in shop class.

Careers

The vocational department prepares students for future careers through courses in home economics, industrial arts, and business education. Our school emphasizes excellence in these subjects, for good positions await graduates who can fulfill the needed requirements.

Mrs. Mary Culler, typing, shorthand, and office practice teacher, capably instructs Judy Ringer in the efficient use of the adding machine.

Deloris Handy, Jerry Cover, Jack Strubing, and Darlene Slattery learn the parts of the balance sheet through their study of bookkeeping.

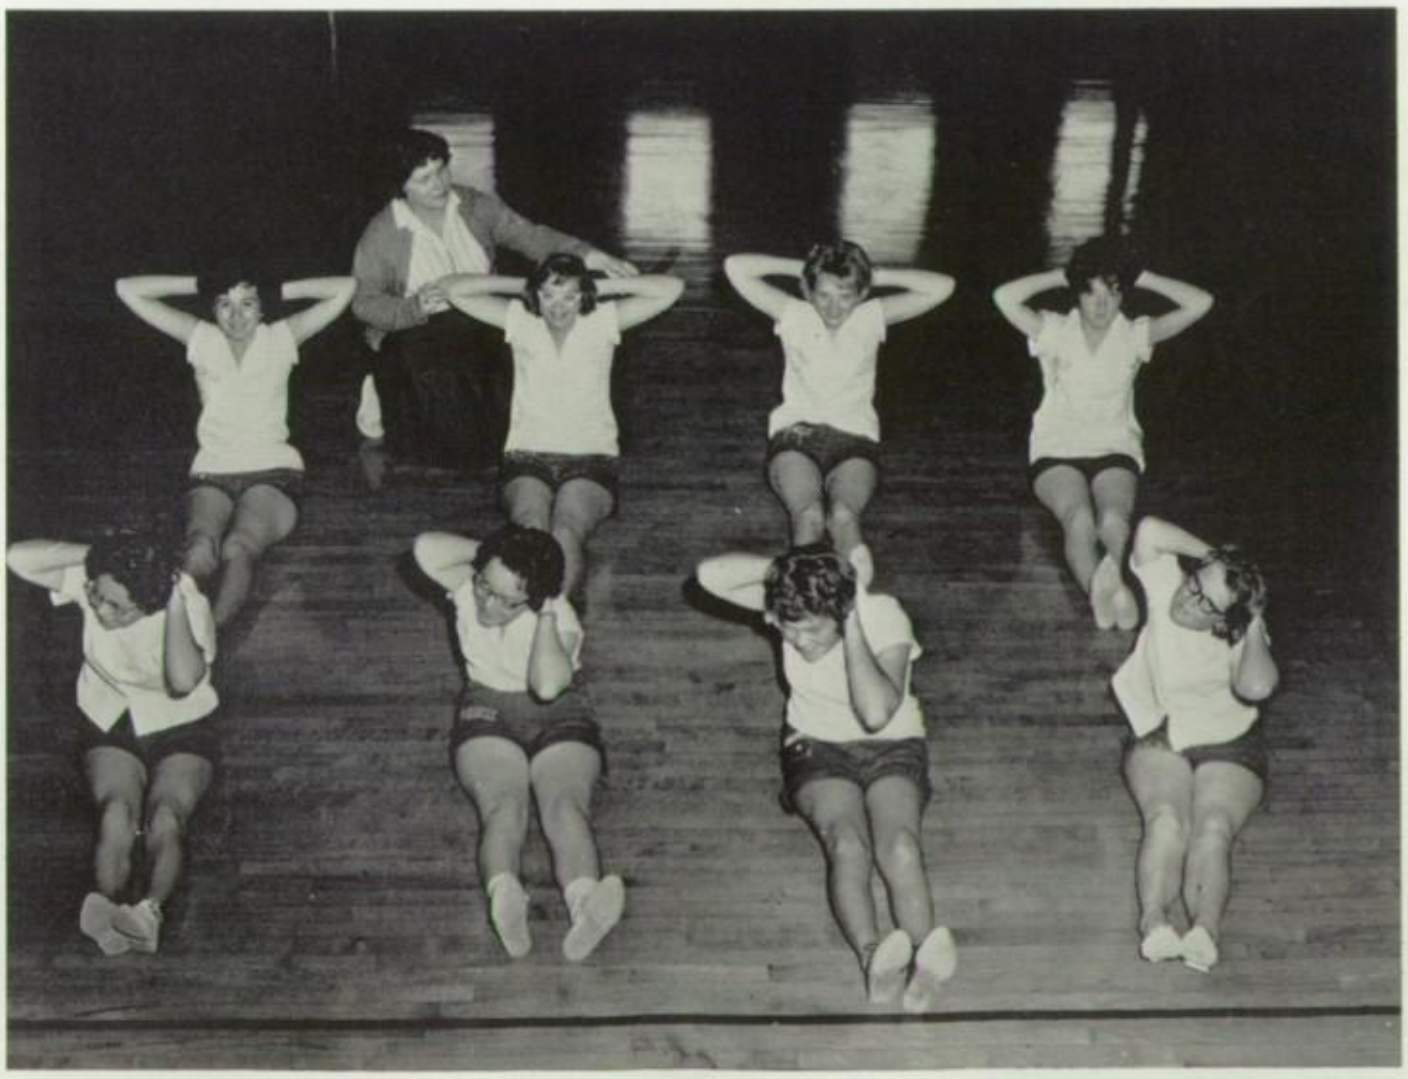


Possible future secretaries study and practice diligently to improve their shorthand skill.

As academic subjects strengthen our knowledge, physical education builds our bodies and character. Sportsmanship may be applied at any time, any place, or in any situation. Education, both physical and mental, is not lost but remains to become a great part of our future lives.

Calisthenics is an important part of physical education. Here Mr. George Cherry has Dave Sholl, Bill Worden, Bob Stotler, Mike Bell, Barry Finzer, and Steve Maxfield doing deep-knee bends.

Applications



Mrs. Rosemary McKeen stresses physical education as an important part of all girls' curriculum. Jane Pepple, Twyla Snyder, Joyce Hissong, Lana Richmond, Virginia Smathers, Alice May, Nancy Osmun, and Sue Blech demonstrate one phase of this program.

An important class for everyone is drivers' training. Mike Cole points out one of the intricate parts of the engine to Sharon Doeden, Sally Carr, and John Hofner.

Follow Studies

Mr. Keith Biler, H.H.S.'s Mr. Music, helps Mary Davis, Connie Cottrell, Karen Straley, and Garland Green produce the fine music heard around the band rooms.

Betsy DeMuth, Beth Ewing, Pam Wonderly, David Ballinger, and Jan Plum practice diligently to improve their music ability, so that they might soon become members of the Senior Band.

HONORS

Honors Earned by

Mrs. Mary Culler, yearbook adviser, presents to Brian Rohrs, editor of the '63 Hixonian, and Judy Ringer, assistant editor, key pins and International Honorary Quill and Scroll Membership Cards for their work in journalism.

Neal Blalock, president of the Senior Class, presents the Senior Plaque to Darlene Slattery, president of the Junior Class.

Candy Byers, our Homemaker of the year, receives the award for ranking first in the Betty Crocker Homemaking Test from Mrs. Pat Miller, Home Economics Teacher.

Jim Meyer gladly receives the Current Science Award from Mr. Derrill Murphy, as Jim's score was the highest of all those who took the Current Science Test.

Students

Mr. Wahl presents the Bausch and Lomb Honorary Science Award to Neal Blalock.

Brian Rohrs, Neal Blalock, and Mary Sindel placed first, second, and third respectively in the Ohio Senior Scholarship Test in Hicksville and received honorable mention in Defiance County.

Bobbie Cook, president of the Hicksville Chapter of FBLA and reporter for the State Chapter, receives awards for her work as a state officer and local president.

On behalf of the Sophomore Class, Virlyn Rex accepts a check from Ed Lyons, which consists of the profits made from the new bookstore.

Gifted Student Program

A research project providing a program for the academically gifted students was sponsored this year by the offices of the County Superintendent of Paulding County and financed by the State Department of Education.

The students were selected on the basis of various test results and teacher recommendation. Selection of the projects was based largely on the student's interest and desire for enrichment or self-improvement in some area beyond classroom work.

Judy Baker discusses her projects in speed reading and notehand with Mr. Horace Everett, Director of the Gifted Student Program.

Scholarship Team Competes

Brian Rohrs received the John Philip Sousa Band Award of 1963 for loyal participation and cooperation in the band's activities, as well as outstanding musical ability. Mrs. Loretta Middleton, President of the Music Boosters, and Mr. Keith Biler, director of the Hicksville High School Band, were happy to present this award to Brian.

Judy Ringer participated in the five-state Facit Regional Typing Contest this year at Dayton, where she typed 76.9 words a minute perfect, placing second. The winner typed 77 perfect, winning a Facit portable typewriter. Top ten scorers of the various regional contests will compete at New York for an all-expense paid trip to Sweden.

Science Fair Stimulates Interest

Approximately three hundred projects were judged at the Science Fair held on both Friday and Saturday nights, making it possible for many of Hicksville's citizens to see the projects.

Neal Blalock was the top ribbon winner at Hicksville this year. He received a superior rating at both the local and district science fairs. He received a second place in the physics division at Archbold Science Fair and an excellent rating at the State Science Fair.

Judy Baker, blue-ribbon winner on her science fair project, demonstrates the process of electroplating to Sharon Doeden.

Herbert Scranton was awarded a superior rating at the local fair. With his project he won many prizes at the Quadra-County Science Fair and at the District Fair.

Susan Laub, Susan Killian, Mary Doeden, and Julie Rhodes were chosen by their teachers and the American Legion Auxiliary to attend Buckeye Girls' State at Capitol University in Columbus, Ohio, this June.

Keith Jones, John Hofner and Steve Middleton were chosen to attend Buckeye Boys' State at Ohio University in Athens, Ohio.

Seniors Step

Dr. Geer presents the "formula to success" to the Class of '63.

Dr. Geer, from Bowling Green State University, delivered the Commencement address at the 82nd annual graduation exercises. The Baccalaureate sermon was delivered by Rev. Maynard Powell, pastor of the Lutheran Church.

Mary Ann Diehl pins our class flower, the yellow rose, on Superintendent Norman Jones.

Ruth Sweeney, Valedictorian of the Class of '63, speaks on the timely topic "Act Well Your Part."

Into the Future

Neal Blalock has finally received his diploma.

Donna Husted sings "You'll Never Walk Alone."

Thirty-nine seniors were present to receive their hard-earned diplomas from Mr. William Cleland, president of the school board.

Salutatorian Judy Ringer presents an interesting speech to her captivated audience.

Valedictorian

Ruth Sweeney is the Valedictorian of the Class of 1963. Counting A- as 10 points and A as 11 points, she has maintained an average of 10.5 out of a possible 11. Ruth has been a member of the high school chorus for four years and was the spelling champion of the high school in 1962. As a sophomore, Ruth was elected secretary-treasurer of her class. In her junior year, she was chosen to attend Girls' State. As a senior, she was elected vice-president of her class and was on the yearbook staff. Ruth was elected to the National Honor Society as a sophomore, and as a senior, she served as secretary of the Hicksville Chapter. Ruth has been a member of the Hicksville Scholarship Team for four years and was elected by the student body to be in the 1963 Coronation Court as the senior girl most likely to succeed.

Salutatorian

Judy Ringer is the Salutatorian of the Class of 1963. She has an average of 10.21. Judy has been a member of the high school chorus three years and the senior band six years. She was elected varsity cheerleader her junior and senior years. Judy has been active in girls' athletics, had a part in the junior class play, was a delegate to Girls' State, is assistant editor of the yearbook, was high school spelling champion in 1960 and 1961, and was elected by the student body to be in the 1963 Coronation Court as most studious senior girl. As a sophomore, Judy was elected to the National Honor Society and this year served as president of the Hicksville Scholarship Team and has been very active in commercial work. At the FBLA Convention in Cleveland, Judy was chosen Miss FBLA of Ohio and was elected as a State Delegate to the 1963 National Convention in Dallas, Texas. She plans to enter Bowling Green State University in September.

Homecoming Win Highlights Season

Tim Betts gets set for a tackle at the annual Homecoming.

This year's football season was not garlanded with victory, but the Aces' mighty spirit earned the gold medal of respect from the hometown fans. Six defeats in eight starts could not crush it.

As the seasoned opened, the Aces couldn't seem to be able to get a toehold in the climb to victory. In the majority of the games, the Aces were badly beaten. Yet in the two games they did win, they demonstrated the drive, determination, and desire to win.

Hicksville opened the football season with the annual Preview held at Payne. The Aces were defeated by Payne 8-0 in the first game; they played Edon to an 8-8 tie.

They lost their Grid opener to Grand Rapids, with a score of 42-6. The Aces scored in the initial quarter for 6 points. Trailing at the half 14-6, it looked as if the Aces might overtake Grand Rapids, but in the third quarter the visitors scored 22 points.

Jerry Scott is on the way to tackle an Edon player.

On September 28, Hicksville's victory over Edon 22-8 not only broke their two-game losing streak, but also was the Aces' first homecoming victory since 1953.

Opening the scoring in the second quarter, the Aces made a touchdown and also converted the extra point. Edon recovered with an 8-yard scamper, pushed over for a touchdown and conversion which knotted the count 8-8. Neither team scored in the third quarter.

Coming to life in the fourth quarter, the Aces scored two consecutive touchdowns.

In the next game the Archbold Blue Streaks defeated the Aces 46-6.

Hicksville handed Geneva a 47-0 defeat at Geneva during an afternoon game. Early in the first quarter, the Hicksville Aces began to score and Geneva just couldn't turn the tide.

The Aces' scoring roundup this year of '62 was surrounded by many players of H.H.S. Barry Haver, playing 4 games, a senior who will be missed next year, was the leading scorer with 42 points. Keith Jones, next year's quarterback, played in 8 games and scored 34 points. Gene Scott, an upcoming junior, scored 18 points in 9 games. John Hofner, a powerful fullback, scored 10 points, with Tom Sholl 6, Doug Cook and Tom Stuckman each 2 points.

Mentioned many times are the various boys who scored the touchdowns. And yet, never to be forgotten are those unsung heroes of the line who constituted the defensive and offensive attacks and made possible the various touchdowns.

H.H.S. Future Varsity

Rewards were small for the Freshman team although the practice and playing was grueling. They played 3 games: Delta, 6-14; Paulding, 0-22; Delta, 20-6; with the freshmen winning the first Delta encounter and the game with Paulding. Great things are expected from this future Aces team.

Playing a total of four games, the younger edition of the Aces finished with a record of 3 losses and 1 win. The triple losses were at the hands of Paulding, twice, and Archbold, once. Hicksville's defeat was reversed in their third battle with the Junior Panthers—the Aces came back with a victory of 8-0. The coaches say this about them, "They have good builds and lots of potential." With this recommendation, our Junior Varsity will be a welcome asset to the Aces Gridiron of the future.

Rallies, Rhythm, and Reason Add Spice to Our Days!

FOOTBALL CAPTAINS
Neal Blalock, Barry Haver, Jerry Scott.

Rallies, led by our agile cheerleaders in their striking white and red outfits, stimulated the fans to a peak of enthusiasm. The rhythm of the band and the clapping of hands added zest to the action of the games. The determination and desire to win, urged on by our able captains, gave the Aces renewed reason to try to win. All of these added spice to an interesting, though not victorious, football season.

This is it, boys . . . Coach George Cherry works out plans for the tournament finals against Jewell played at Defiance.

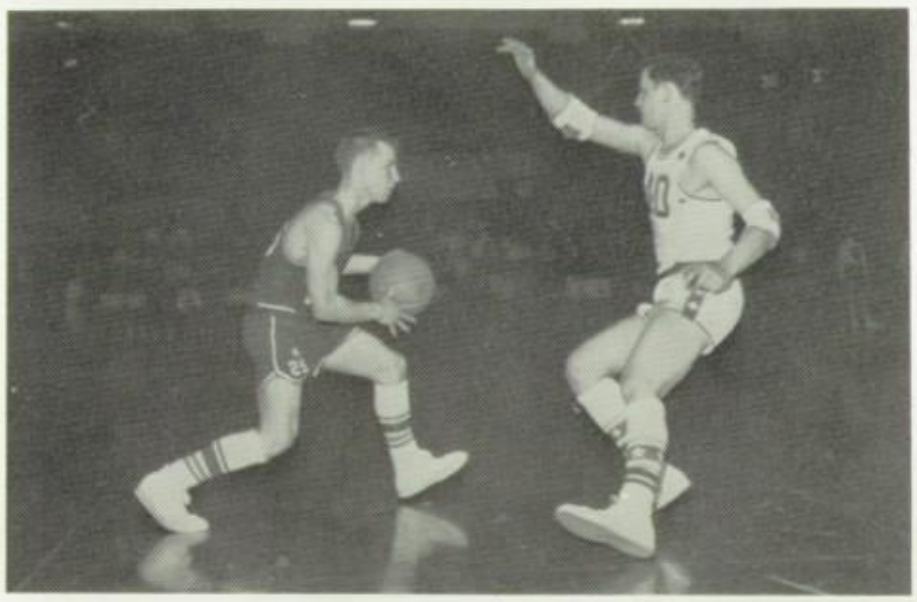
With a swish, a dull thud, and a gigantic roar, another basketball season was underway as the fighting Aces tipped off their first basketball contest. This was Mr. Cherry's first year as coach at H.H.S. His basketball season was not momentous and yet he did a wonderful job with only one returning senior and the other members of the team rather inexperienced. The victories were exciting and hard fought.

The most exciting game of the year was against the Jewell Rams during the tournament finals. In the last quarter the Aces were behind by eight points and during the last two minutes six points were made to bring the Aces' score within two points of the Rams' score. The defeat was hard and emotional to many members of the crowd and team, yet many believe that the Aces in their spirit and fast fighting really won the game, not on the scoreboard, but in the respect of the crowds.

Watch out for little Barry Haver. Barry, the only senior in the H.H.S. lineup, played a leading role in helping the team complete a satisfactory season.

Barry Haver, number 25, attempts a basket while Ron Laux, number 11, and Bill Mock, number 23, race for the rebound.

The crowds at the Aces' basketball games would go wild when Guard Keith Jones would go up to "dunk" the ball. In this picture the Aces and Jewell players appear to be looking on in awe.

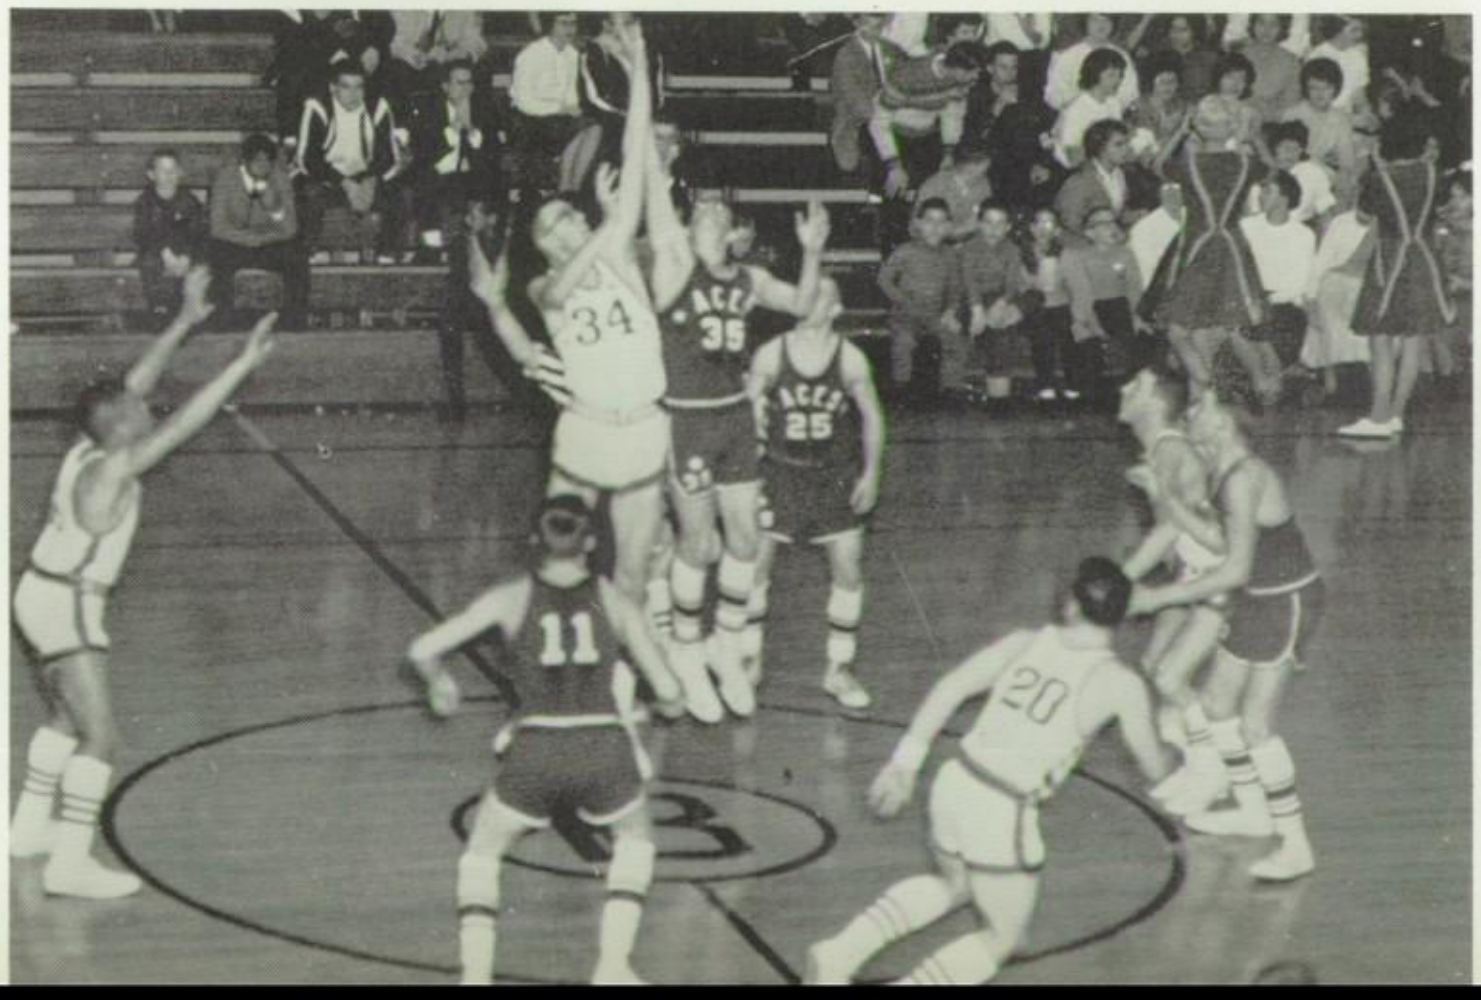


Senior Barry Haver attempts a fake against a Ram player during the all-important game of the season . . . the tourney game.

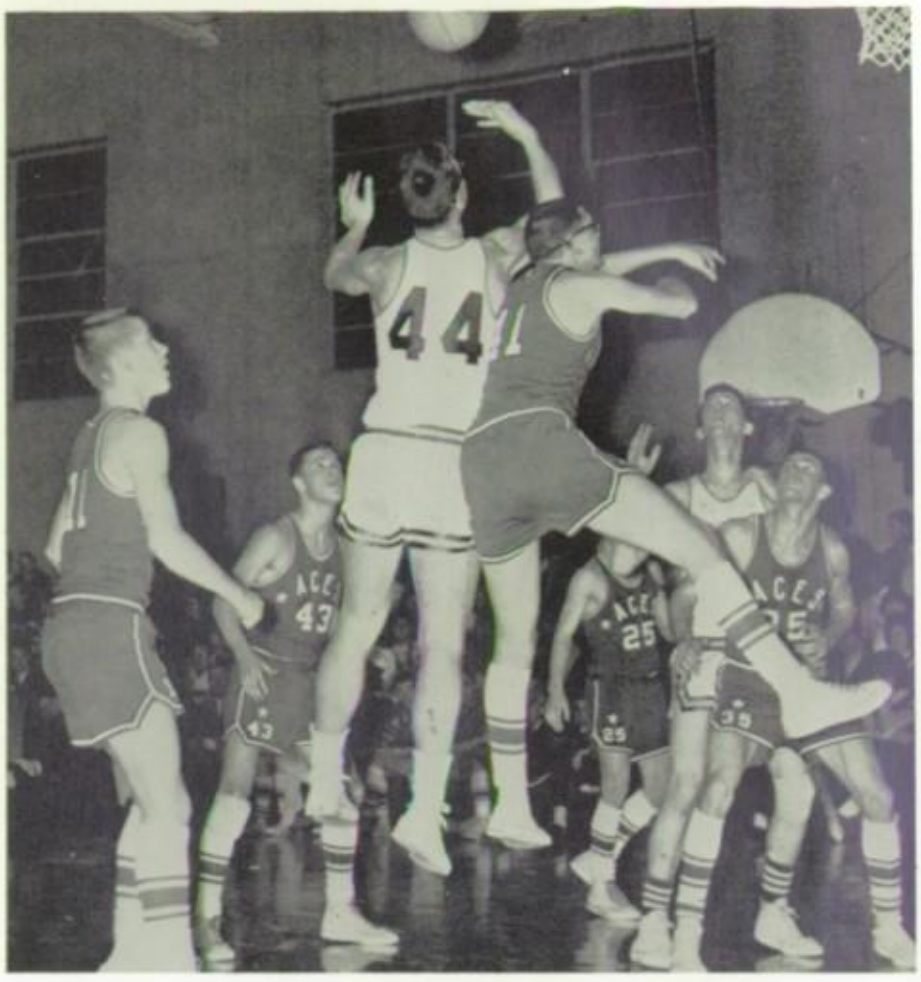
Scoring on a long shot, Barry Haver pushes the ball in during the first Edgerton game.

Spirit and Coordination

The ball is tossed and Cliff Gorrell and a Bulldog player stretch to get the tip to begin the first game with Edgerton.



The Hicksville vs. Jewell game during the tournament proved to be one of the most exciting of the season. Here, during the third quarter, Paul Murphy shoots for a 2-pointer.



In the first season's game with Edgerton, Paul Murphy tips the ball to Ron Laux, Keith Jones, Barry Haver, and Cliff Gorrell.

Are Prominent

Anxiety, tension, and delight are on the faces of the crowd and cheerleaders during the final crucial moments of the tourney game.

The Edgerton and Hicksville ballet troupes were at Edgerton for what turned out to be a waltz for the Bulldogs. Here Keith Jones tries to recapture the ball for Hicksville.

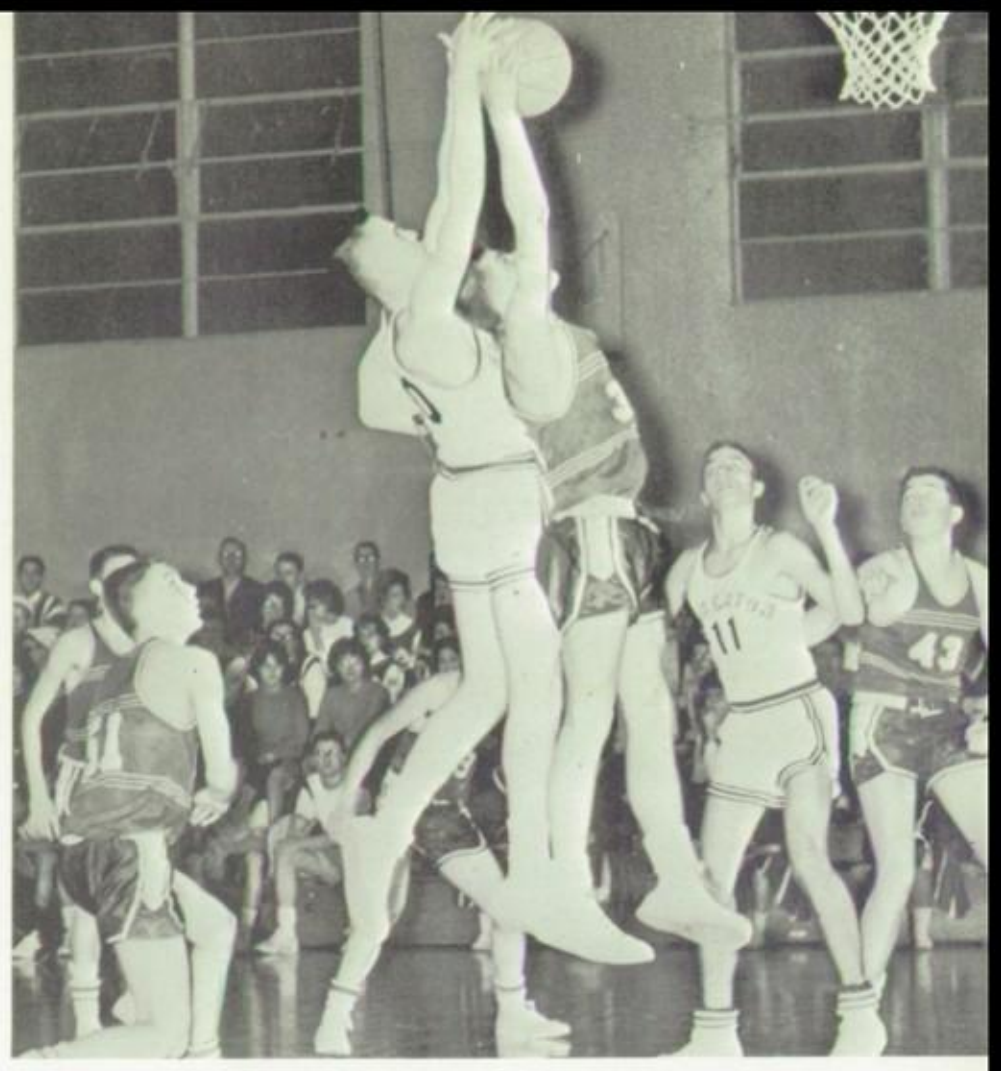
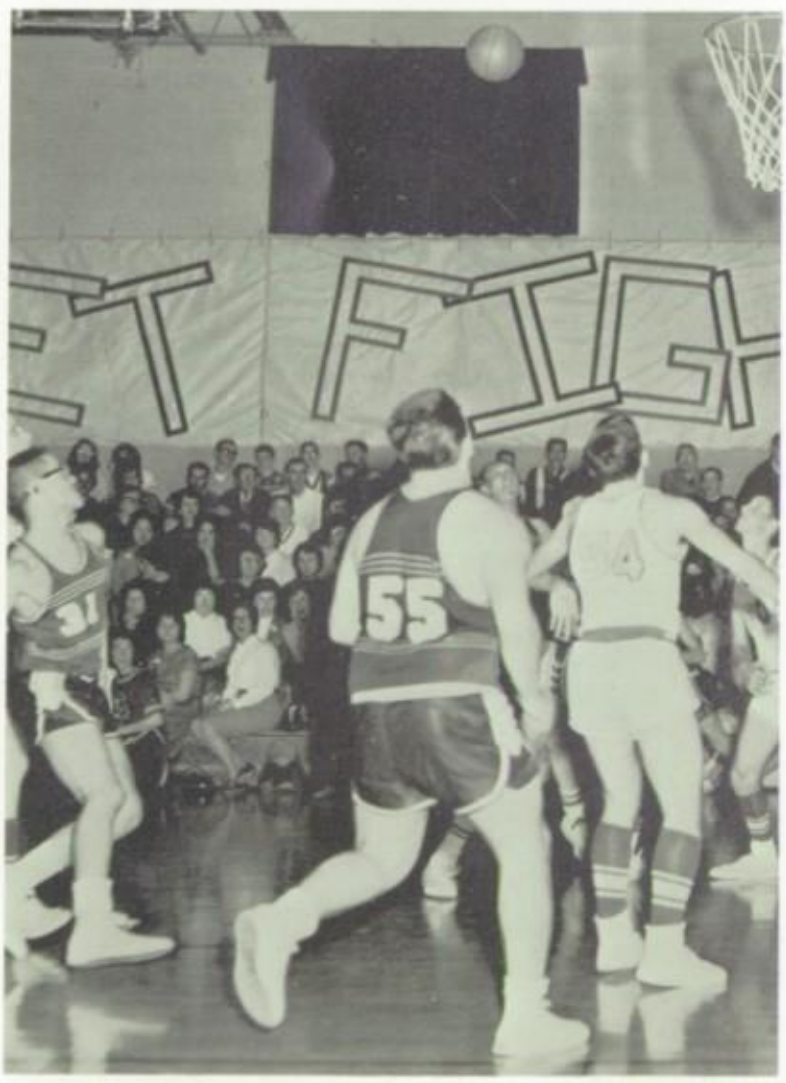
Intense concentration plays on the faces of the Hicksville players, Bill Worden, 21, Gene Edwards, 31, and Tony Congleton, 55, as they get set for a rebound after a shot by an Edgerton player.

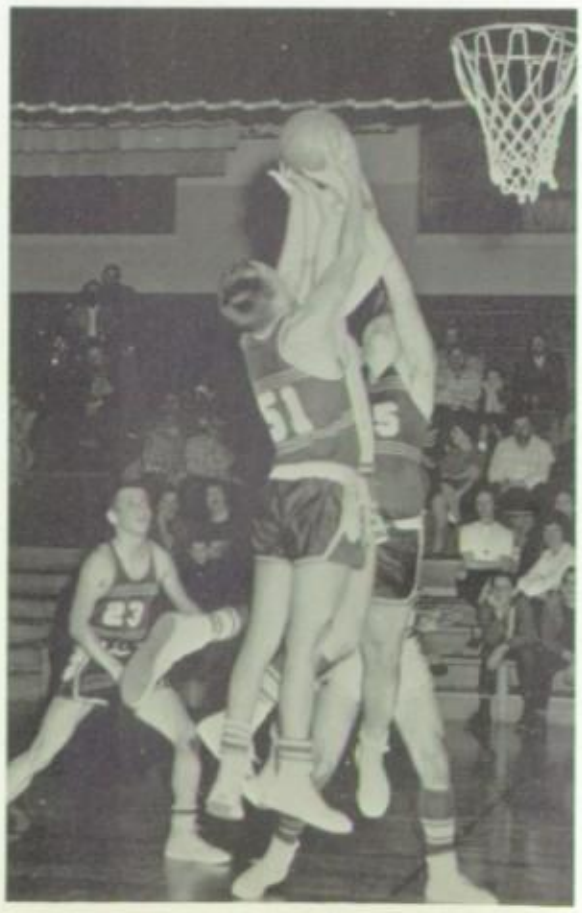


Tom Sholl goes up for a rebound against the Edgerton Reserve Team in their first game against the Bombers.

Jackie Cunningham, Judy Peters, Diana Katona, and Joyce Anderson, the reserve cheerleaders, call for another basket during the Edgerton game.



Tony Congleton, 55, and Gene Edwards, 31, race for the ball during a crucial moment of the Edgerton game.



Tom Cromwell, 23, and Mike Headley, 51, drive for a tie-up during the second Edgerton game.

Robbie Miller, Bob Collins, Bill Metz, Jim Handy, John Rohrs, Marv Edwards, Terry Hart.

Freshmen Train for Reserve Team

The 1963 season for the Freshman Team was not as good as many expected, since there were coaching turnovers for the squad. They won five games and lost six which gave the players a good deal of action as well as the necessary experience for next year's reserve team. Yet, considering all of the performances of the team, a great deal of action can be expected of them in future years.

Many students of H.H.S. do not fully realize the indirect importance of the Junior High team. Often this team is underrated because they are not in the limelight. This year's Junior Varsity is one of the best in a number of years and will be the best in their high school years. They played the teams of tomorrow and proved a willingness and desire to win.

Mr. Fast, one of the coaches of the team, said this of them, "I think the Junior High Team enjoyed a fine basketball season." The reserve team (those in the white) compiled a record of seven wins and one loss. The varsity (those in the dark uniforms) a similar record of ten wins and four losses. This team advanced to the finals of the Green Meadows Tournament, only to lose to Sherwood by a score of 40 to 34.

Vim, Vigor and Vitality

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

FRONT TO REAR: Sally Scott, Arlene Laux, Jean Kemerer, Cindy Osmun, Donna Husted, Judy Ringer. Insert: Head Cheerleader, Jean Kemerer.

There is nothing in the world that seems capable of creating more enthusiasm than the arrival of an arch basketball opponent, and nothing more lively than the supporters of the team urging their stalwarts on to victory. The Varsity Cheerleaders of the year of '63 were the best in many years. All are veteran cheerleaders, five are seniors and the other is a junior. They will remember the greatest successes, failures, joys, and tragedies of H.H.S. basketball and football. They will leave a legacy to the young aspirants of cheerleaders as being the best the school has had in many years.

Diana Katona, Jacki Cunningham, Judy Peters, Joyce Anderson.

Win or Lose—the energetic Reserve Cheerleaders supported our Reserve Aces throughout the football and basketball seasons. Their enthusiasm paid off as the Reserves had a victorious season.

Girls' Athletic Association Varsity Undefeated

The 1963 girls' varsity squad was made up of seven seniors and two newcomers of the Freshman Class. Seniors Donna Husted, Dee Ann Synder and Candy Byers are veteran players of four years. Each is an outstanding, fast-playing, and relentless guard. Rickie Pierman, Jean Kemerer, and Judy Ringer have played in forward positions on the G.A.A. team for four years also, and have proved themselves to be a tightly-knit team of forwards. Being able to alternate in either the forward or guard position, Mary Sindel was a valuable player in both defense and offense. The two freshmen of the squad are Vicki Hart and Nancy Osmun who as their fan club members say are "whizzes" under the basket.

Darlene Slattery reaches for the ball during a varsity practice session against the reserves.

"Jump ball, Jump ball, Get it, Get it!" is the chant as varsity guard Dee Ann Snyder and reserve center Joyce Hissong jump for the ball in an initial play off of the practice session.

This year's team proved to be an undefeatable combination in the county. They played Jewell, Fairview, Defiance, and Ayersville and were able to trounce each team that challenged the title.

Cinder Summary

With a host of new hopefuls plus the combined efforts of a few veteran cindermen, the 1963 track and field team vaulted into another winning season. Under the direction and expert coaching of Mr. Cherry, they had for their goal the Green Valley Conference Championship.

In this meet Hicksville placed first in the high jump, the broad jump, and in the 880-yard relay.

They placed second in the low hurdles, the 100 and 220, the mile run, and tied for second in the high hurdles. They finished second in the meet.

In the sectional track meet, Hicksville placed in the half mile with a team consisting of Gene and Jerry Scott, Cliff Gorrell, and Wes Neller. Jerry Scott, placed in the 100 and the 220, Gene Scott in the low hurdles, and Cliff Gorrell in the half-mile.

These boys were then allowed to enter the District Meet in which Gene Scott placed in the low hurdles, and Cliff Gorrell in the half-mile. These placings qualified them for the State Finals, but neither boy won any points at the meet.

Two relay team members, Bill Mock and Mike Silvers, pass the baton at the fourth mile.

Wes Neller leaps high into the air during a practice broad-jump.

Doug Cook and Dave Schlosser jump low hurdles demonstrating to the junior high track team certain points of form.

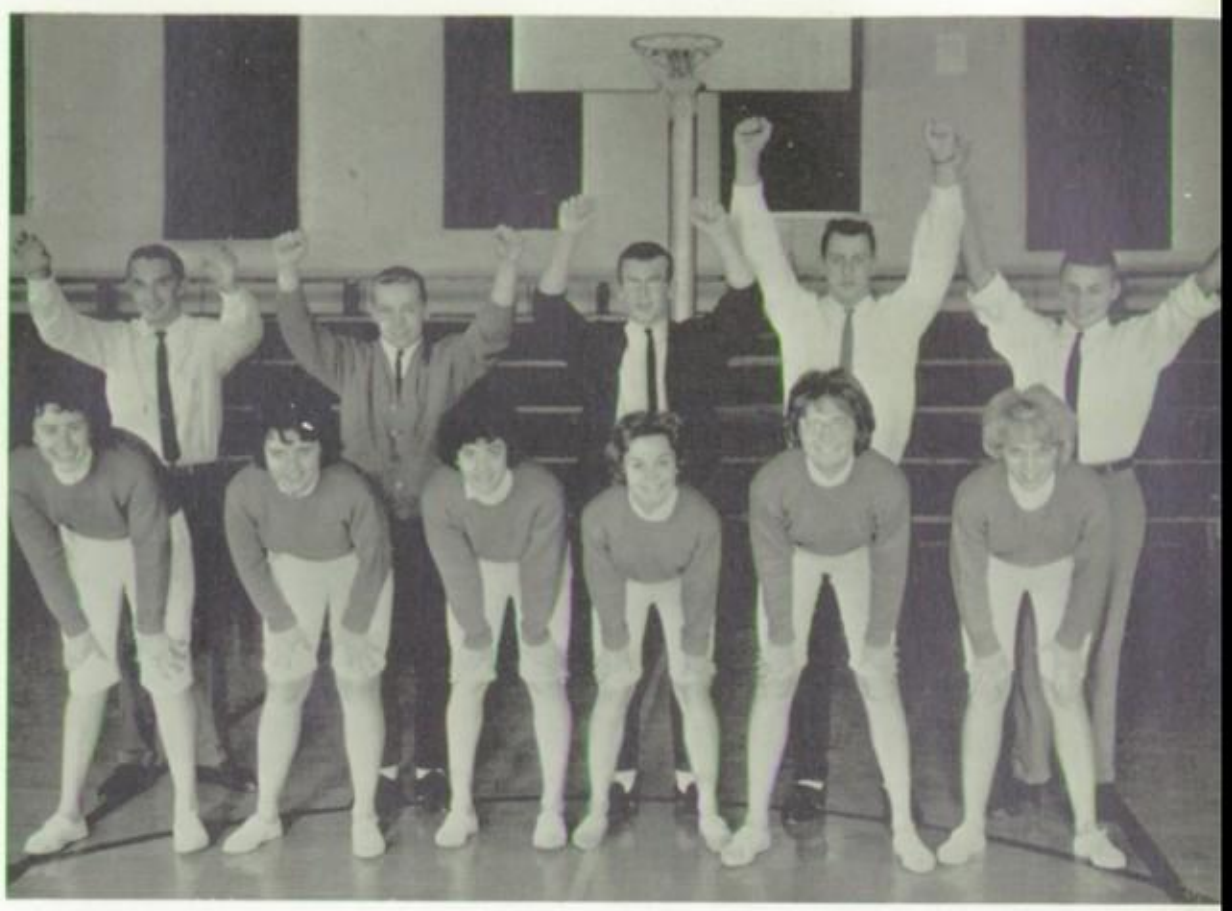
*LEAGUE GAMES: 2-2 RECORD

This year's baseball series was highlighted by the Aces' win over Ayersville in a league game by a score of 2-1. Keith Jones was the winning pitcher. This was the first time in the team's history that they have done this. Coach Jones made this remark about the team: "We are relatively a young team with only one returning senior . . . I think the squad, with the experience it has gained, is really going to play ball next year."

Keith Jones begins his wind-up to start the game with Ayersville.

CALENDAR

These beautiful dolls hold the names of the "beautiful dolls" elected as Homecoming Queen and attendants for 1963, whose names are to be revealed during the coming Pep Session.



The senior football players try their art at cheerleading with the Varsity Cheerleaders during the last Pep Session of the football season.

For one of our special assemblies this year, we were fortunate to have a missionary from the GaBoon in tropical Africa, who gave an interesting talk and showed us the tools and instruments used in that country.

To advertise the Spoondrift, the staff presented skits. We have a problem, don't we, girls?

Queen Diana reigned over the Christmas Formal, which was sponsored by the Senior Class.

H.H.S. — '62, '63

"All I want for Christmas is a dolly and a baby carriage," says little Rickie to Santa Claus. The Speech Class presented a fine program for the students of HHS, sending them off on a happy Christmas Vacation.

High excitement prevailed over the basketball season, as the team got in a huddle to plan their strategy under the capable direction of Coach Cherry.

The "Cotton Pickin' Minstrel" was one of the highlights of the year. Some hidden talents were discovered in this production presented by the PTA and directed by Miss Mary Coon.

Coronation 1963 was the pride project.

The Home Economics Department exhibited projects which they made during the year.

Jane Beck, Phil Wonderly, and Cliff Gorrell set the stage for the Junior Class Play.

Many fine projects were shown at the Industrial Arts and Home Economics Fair.

Coach Ray Hook and his Junior High Baseball Team relax before a game.

Larry Husted wins first prize for his picnic table at the Industrial Arts and Home Economics Fair.

May 18, approximately 80 junior and senior high school students visited Greenfield Village in Dearborne, Michigan.

With anticipation of graduating, the seniors are being fitted for their caps and gowns.

The seniors walk through the hallowed doors of HHS for the last time. Good Luck, Seniors!

"Behind every successful man there is a woman." There were the girls that stood behind our successful Ace men as they performed in each sports event. The Yell Club this year helped make signs, held record-hops, and participated in pep session skits to give more spirit to our teams. They not only encouraged and supported the team themselves, but invited the boys and the parents to join them. During tournament week and especially at the tournament game, the enthusiastic cheering and spirit projected by the Hicksville fans filled every corner of the gymnasium. These girls in white were the ones who were always standing by ready to give those extra words of encouragement whenever they were needed.

Librarians

Service and guidance to the students is the challenge offered the librarians. This year these workers labored harder than ever to reorganize the school library so that its material might be used more effectively. Due to the new advisor, Mrs. Stolte, the Hicksville High School library was the scene of intense study and research during each study period.

F.T.A.

Students who will be tomorrow's teachers find their goals today in Future Teachers of America. Through movies, discussions, and classroom observation, these twelve members learn the daily details of teaching. Under the supervision of Mr. Gerig, the members have performed special services for the students and teachers of Hicksville High School. Such services were a survey on study habits and a pamphlet entitled "How to Study."

F.B.L.A. Receives Honors

Under the capable direction of Mrs. Mary Culler, the Future Business Leaders of America have been very active this year, holding regular monthly meetings and participating in various business learning activities.

In November, six members attended the Northwest District meeting at Defiance College, where Judy Ringer placed first in the typewriting and shorthand contests, and second in the spelling contest. Also in November, 39 girls traveled to Cleveland to tour the Federal Reserve Bank.

The highlight of the year for F.B.L.A.'ers was the F.B.L.A. State Convention in Cleveland at the Statler Hilton Hotel. Bobbie Cook, 1962 State Reporter, served as toastmistress at both the banquet and the luncheon. Judy Ringer was elected Miss F.B.L.A. of Ohio and will represent the state at the National Convention at Dallas in June. As the result of a very effective campaign, Judy was also elected one of the two State Delegates to vote for national officers in Dallas. Donna Husted took part in the speech contest, and the spelling team, ranking sixth of the 20 schools participating, consisted of Candy Byers, Donna Husted, and Judy Ringer.

The smiles on the faces of Donna Husted, Bobbie Cook, Judy Ringer, and Mrs. Mary Culler were the result of the announcement of the honors received by Hicksville F.B.L.A. at the Awards Banquet in Cleveland.

To fulfill the civic purpose of the club, the F.B.L.A. has helped the community of Hicksville this year by participating in the "Lick Cancer With a Lick" campaign. The F.B.L.A. is striving to prepare future business leaders who will be capable of entering the business world of tomorrow.

Future Homemakers of America is an organization composed of twenty-six girls who have had at least one year of Home Economics. In September the officers attended the district conference in Bryan. This helped the local chapter plan activities for the year. The chapter theme for the year was "Educational Values." Each monthly meeting was planned on this theme. The highlight of the year was the Senior banquet at which the new officers were installed, and the seniors responded with a sincere farewell. This club was under the outstanding leadership of Mrs. Patricia Miller.

OFFICERS: Cheryl Beverly, Vice-President; Gloria Blasing, Treasurer; Karen Stairhime, President; Diana Stotler, Secretary.

Honor Society Increases

The Hicksville Chapter of the National Honor Society was organized in 1958 to give recognition to outstanding students. The aim of this society is to create scholarship, stimulate the desire to render service, promote leadership, and develop character.

A student may be elected to the Honor Society in his sophomore, junior, or senior year. He must have a 3.5 average and maintain this average until he receives permanent membership in his senior year.

This year nine sophomores and two juniors were elected to the National Honor Society and three members attained permanent membership and received the coveted keystone pin.

With its increasing membership and high ideals this group is highly respected.

Student Council Betters H.H.S.

Realizing the need for training in citizenship and government, the student council furnishes a fertile field for preparation in leadership and service to the community, whether it be the school community or one of wider scope.

Student government has long been one of the important phases of school life. The Hicksville High Student Council has made large strides to make our school a better institute of learning by discussing and acting upon school problems, conducting a "get-out-to-vote" campaign, sponsoring a dance, and supporting the National Honor Society.

Makers

With the approach of the winter months the band's rehearsals take on a different flavor—from marches to overtures.

Under the capable direction of Mr. Keith Biler the fifty-four member concert band experienced a busy and successful year. Six members of the band formed the "Varsity Letters," a jazz band that played for several of the dances after basketball games. The band attended the district band concert at Bowling Green and received a II rating. The woodwind quintet attended the solo ensemble contest in April and received a I, superior rating, which entitled them to participate in the state contest in Dayton where they received a II, excellent rating. Steve Middleton, who played a tuba solo in the contest, received a I rating at the district contest and a II rating at Dayton. The appreciation of the band's music by the audience from the rise of Mr. Biler's baton to the last applause, was evidence of work well done.

Pep Band

Creating spirit and enthusiasm through music was the aim of the Pep Band during the football and basketball seasons. Present at all home and travelling to the away football games, the Pep Band was always firing the spirit of the Aces while keeping the fans' spirit alive with their blazing numbers. After an exciting reserve basketball game some of the original enthusiasm would be lacking, but not for long because the band would burst forth with an enthusiastic "Shout, Shout" to revive the spirits.

Junior Band

Eager to begin—ambitious to continue—the young instrumentalists of the Junior Band strive to become future members of the Senior Band. Under the direction of Mr. Keith Biler, the novice players practice diligently to reach their goal.

One of the most outstanding organizations in the new Junior High was the chorus. With their eagerness to learn and the able direction of Miss Mary Jane Coon, they have had many accomplishments this year. A quartet and double quartet were featured within the group. These quartets sang at various community churches and their music was enjoyed by everyone. Members of the chorus were encouraged to challenge the quartets throughout the year so the most qualified singers were represented.

The Junior High Chorus attended District Contest at Ayersville for the first time this year.

Through Song

Soloists, Donna Husted, Linda Haase, Ed Cleland, John Ewing, Steve Middleton, Mike Neidhart, Virlyn Rex, Diana Katona, and Judy Ringer practice for their grand performance at the Christmas Concert.

The High School Chorus consisting of 60 members, presented a stirring Christmas Concert. They also performed at Contest in which they received an excellent rating. This year the chorus and band taped a recording which was sold to interested persons. For their final appearance the chorus sang two numbers at Baccalaureate.

Seniors—Adrenne Sindel, Dianne Miller, Rickie Pierman, and Pat Burlingame prepare for their final appearance with the High School Chorus.

"Get your Spoondrift, now—only ten cents!" That was the call heard in the corridors one afternoon as students left their last classes. It was only one of the many unique sales promotions typical of this year's new and improved Spoondrift. Under the helpful guidance of advisor, Mrs. McAdams; co-editors, Judy Baker and Jerry Laub, displayed an energetic interest that inspired the staff to publish regularly a highly-rated school paper. This Spoondrift was published every three weeks, bringing to the student body an eye-catching cover, continued stories, and all the latest news on school activities. The over-all make-up of the Spoondrift was rated as superior by the evaluation staff of the Bowling Green Journalism Department.

Advisor, Mrs. McAdams; co-editors, Judy Baker and Jerry Laub.

Marching Misses

New uniforms and clever routines by the majorettes captured the attention of the Ace supporters at the half-time shows during the football season.

Featured by the band in a special show, the majorettes gave everyone an opportunity to see the new twirling and dancing routines that they had learned at camp.

Leading this sparking trio was head majorette, Rickie Pierman.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL: Judy Baker, Twyla Snyder, Candi Overmeyer, Mr. Keith Biler, Rickie Pierman, Wallis May, Susan Killian.

"Presenting the Hicksville High School marching band under the direction of Mr. Keith Biler" was the introduction heard during the football season. The members of the band are known for their tireless hours of practicing and marching, preparation for the annual kick-off bonfire, morale-boosting pep assemblies, and their exhilerating football half-time shows.

The band's outstanding numbers are frequently heard by their performances for the student body and numerous outside functions. They have participated not only as the feature band at the home football games, but have marched at the Defiance County Fair, Auburn Street Parade, and the Defiance College Homecoming Parade.

Speaking for the band in all matters of importance was the executive council. This group tried to iron out all difficulties that arose concerning the band to make a smoother running organization.

Presented with Princess DEBBIE of the House of DIEHL and Prince JACK of the House of BURLEY

The Senior Coronation—"The Days of King Arthur and Queen Ann"—was climaxed on March 15, 1963, after months of work. This extravaganza took an enchanted audience to the days of long ago with the reigning King Arthur and Queen Ann. The throne was to be soon relinquished to a new King, Queen, and royal court. Arrayed in exotic costumes, the seniors portrayed a time of beauty, chivalry, and nobility in the contest to determine the new heirs to the throne.

Their Majesties Queen Rickie, King Barry, and the royal court were honored by Crown Mistress Donna and Crown Princess Debbie Diehl and Prince Jack Burley following the spectacular.

The senior parents served tempting refreshments and the gala evening was concluded with dancing.

Senior Class Presents

Oh, look, Alice, Mr. Warren is proposing!

As the house lights dimmed and the footlights brightened in the gym Friday and Saturday, November 16 and 17, members of the senior class stepped into the roles of "Lock, Stock, and Lipstick."

When meticulous Gordon Warren, student counselor in Pembroke High School, returns to the fall semester of school and learns that the Board of Education has added a woman counselor to the staff, he is shocked! He is a firm believer in "A place for everything and everything in its place!" . . . and there is no place for a woman. When the attractive and vivacious Jane Gardner, the new counselor, breezes in, she has two strikes against her—first, she is a woman; and second, due to a temporary housing shortage, the domineering principal, Miss Enthwhistle, moves Jane into Gordon's hallowed domain—lock, stock, and lipstick. From that point everything moves into a rousing climax involving a Supervising Sanitary Engineer (janitor), Charlie Plunkett, and Mrs. Maggs, a boisterous, but lovable cleaning lady, Mary Lou Brennan, a very charming senior yearbook editor at Pembroke, her boyfriend Don Donley, Larry Donley, an unwilling reformed delinquent, his fast but reforming girlfriend, Carol Izzard, and Miss Prather, a math teacher with problems who gives other people more problems. The play ends as the two counselors find solutions to the seemingly unsurmountable problems as Gordon is forced to admit that Jane Gardner is just what the "counselor" ordered.

Oh, I say, Mr. Plunket, Plunket, PLUNKET!

I know that you and Mr. Warren are . . .

Oh, Don, are you hurt?

A few moments of relaxation before the play begins.

In this play, Peggy, a delightful girl who talks too much, is tricked into an agreement to remain absolutely silent for the next 48 hours—no matter what! Her girl friend Gwen is to stay with her to make certain she keeps the agreement. Gwen decides this would be a fine time for her to snare the silent Peggy's boy friend, Willie. Meanwhile Peggy's bewildered parents are convinced something serious is wrong and call in doctors and specialists. Relatives start coming and complications start mounting. Willie gives up with Peggy and decides to go along with Gwen. Then suddenly the 48 hours come to an end and Peggy takes action!

As the sun sets, and the day turns to night, so completes our year and our book of memories. Many times we felt that our frustrations and anxieties would never end, especially when we had deadlines to meet.

This book with its pages formed by sweat, tears, and misspelled names and words would never have been possible without the tireless efforts of our advisor, Mrs. Mary Culler. To you, Mrs. Culler, we, the staff of the '63 Hixonian, say: "Thank you."
